

Charlie Batch
Keynote Speaker
“Expect Your Best” Introduction

The names Charlie Batch and the Pittsburgh Steelers go hand in hand. For 11 seasons, Charlie served as the team’s backup quarterback and experienced mentor, stepping up in critical games to lead the team to victory and coaching rookie players to expect their best. Off the field, he took on leadership roles within the NFL, serving as a player rep and executive committee member for the NFLPA, speaking out for players’ rights and working for change to benefit the entire league.

Today, Charlie is a keynote speaker, media personality, community advocate and Founder of the Best of the Batch Foundation.

We’re so excited to have him here with us. Please join me in welcoming Mr. Charlie Batch.
